There is a significant statistical relationship between the level of family involvement and improved outcomes for children and young adults.

- To hold meetings during the school year to address current concerns related to Special Education.
- To provide direct input on the policies, programs, and practices that impact services and supports for children with disabilities and their families.
- To increase the involvement of families of children with special needs in making recommendations on special education policy.
- To advise on matters that pertain to the education, health and safety of children with special needs.
- To advise on unmet needs of children with disabilities.

All children Can Learn!

New Jersey Administrative Code 6A:14-1.2(h) states that: "each board of education shall ensure that a special education parent advisory group is in place in the district to provide input to the district on issues concerning students with disabilities."

The Special Education Parent Advisory Group (SEPAG) consists of parents and educators who bring forth their knowledge and expertise to foster an understanding of the special education process for parents/guardians of special needs children.
