AP United States History II

Summer Assignment 2021

The AP United States History II course is both writing and reading intensive. The course requires students to work well both independently and collaboratively and comprises a substantial amount of work throughout the year. It is expected that students hold themselves to high learning expectations and participate actively in the course, which includes engaging in reading and writing assignments, creating projects, and participating in class and online discussions. To prepare students for the coming study of American history in this course, it is required that each student complete a summer assignment. This assignment not only engages students in the type of learning that goes on throughout the course; its completion indicates a level of student commitment required to complete the course successfully. Thus, adequate fulfillment of the summer assignment is mandatory for all students wishing to partake of this course next school year.

Handed in on first day of class, September 7, 2021

Reading:

AMSCO United States History Prep Book: You should purchase this book as soon as possible (available on Amazon for $17 or www.amscopub.com for 18.95). We will be using it as a supplement to the textbook throughout the year and it is very useful in completing the summer assignment and preparing for the AP Exam. An online version of the Textbook is available on my website if you are unable to purchase a book.

Assignment: This is what will be handed in and Graded

Part 1: Gilded Age and Industrialization Review: This Era is the transition era from US I to US II curriculums. Some of the content will be review of information from the end of the school years and some will be new information. We will have a test on The Gilded Age the first full week of school so make sure you understand the information. (PDF Gilded Age Review Readings)

Part 2: Populist to Progressive Movement Guided Reading (AMSCO Chapters 19 & 21)

Guidelines for assignment:

- All work should be your own and not copied or plagiarized.
- Completed by hand (no typing) so hard copy must be handed into Mr. Chojnacki on first day of school.
- Late Assignments Policy: you will receive a penalty of 5 points per day.
- You are responsible for knowing/understanding all of the content covered in this assignment as it will appear on assignments & tests when we begin class in September.
