

The OCEAN CITY SCHOOL DISTRICT anticipates seeking a dynamic and exceptional leader to fill its Superintendent position. As a shore community located on a barrier island in southern New Jersey, Ocean City offers a distinctive experience for those who live and work there. A primary, intermediate, and high school deliver a top-tier education to approximately 1,900 students from Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Upper Township, Corbin City, Longport as well as through the NJ School Choice Program. The Board of Education seeks a Superintendent of Schools who embraces the past, is firmly immersed in the present and committed to building for the future.

The successful candidate must be a decisive, collaborative leader, committed to working with all stakeholders. Ocean City's highly engaged school community participates in key conversations and contributes to the district's success. Ocean City's three schools, their students, and faculty have achieved National, State, and County recognition for excellence. The next Superintendent will have the distinctive opportunity to build on the district's many accomplishments and will possess exceptional communication skills.

Prior experience as a district level administrator is preferred. Additional information on the position and the search process can be found at <https://oceancityschools.org/superintendentsearchinformation>. Minimally, all candidates must be eligible for a New Jersey Department of Education School Administrator certification. The successful candidate will be offered a competitive salary package commensurate with experience and state guidelines.

Please email letter of interest and current resume by May 5, 2023 for best consideration to: Timothy E. Kelley, School Business Administrator at tkelley@ocsdnj.org.

All applications will be treated in the strictest of confidence.

Ocean City Public Schools District is an EEO employer.